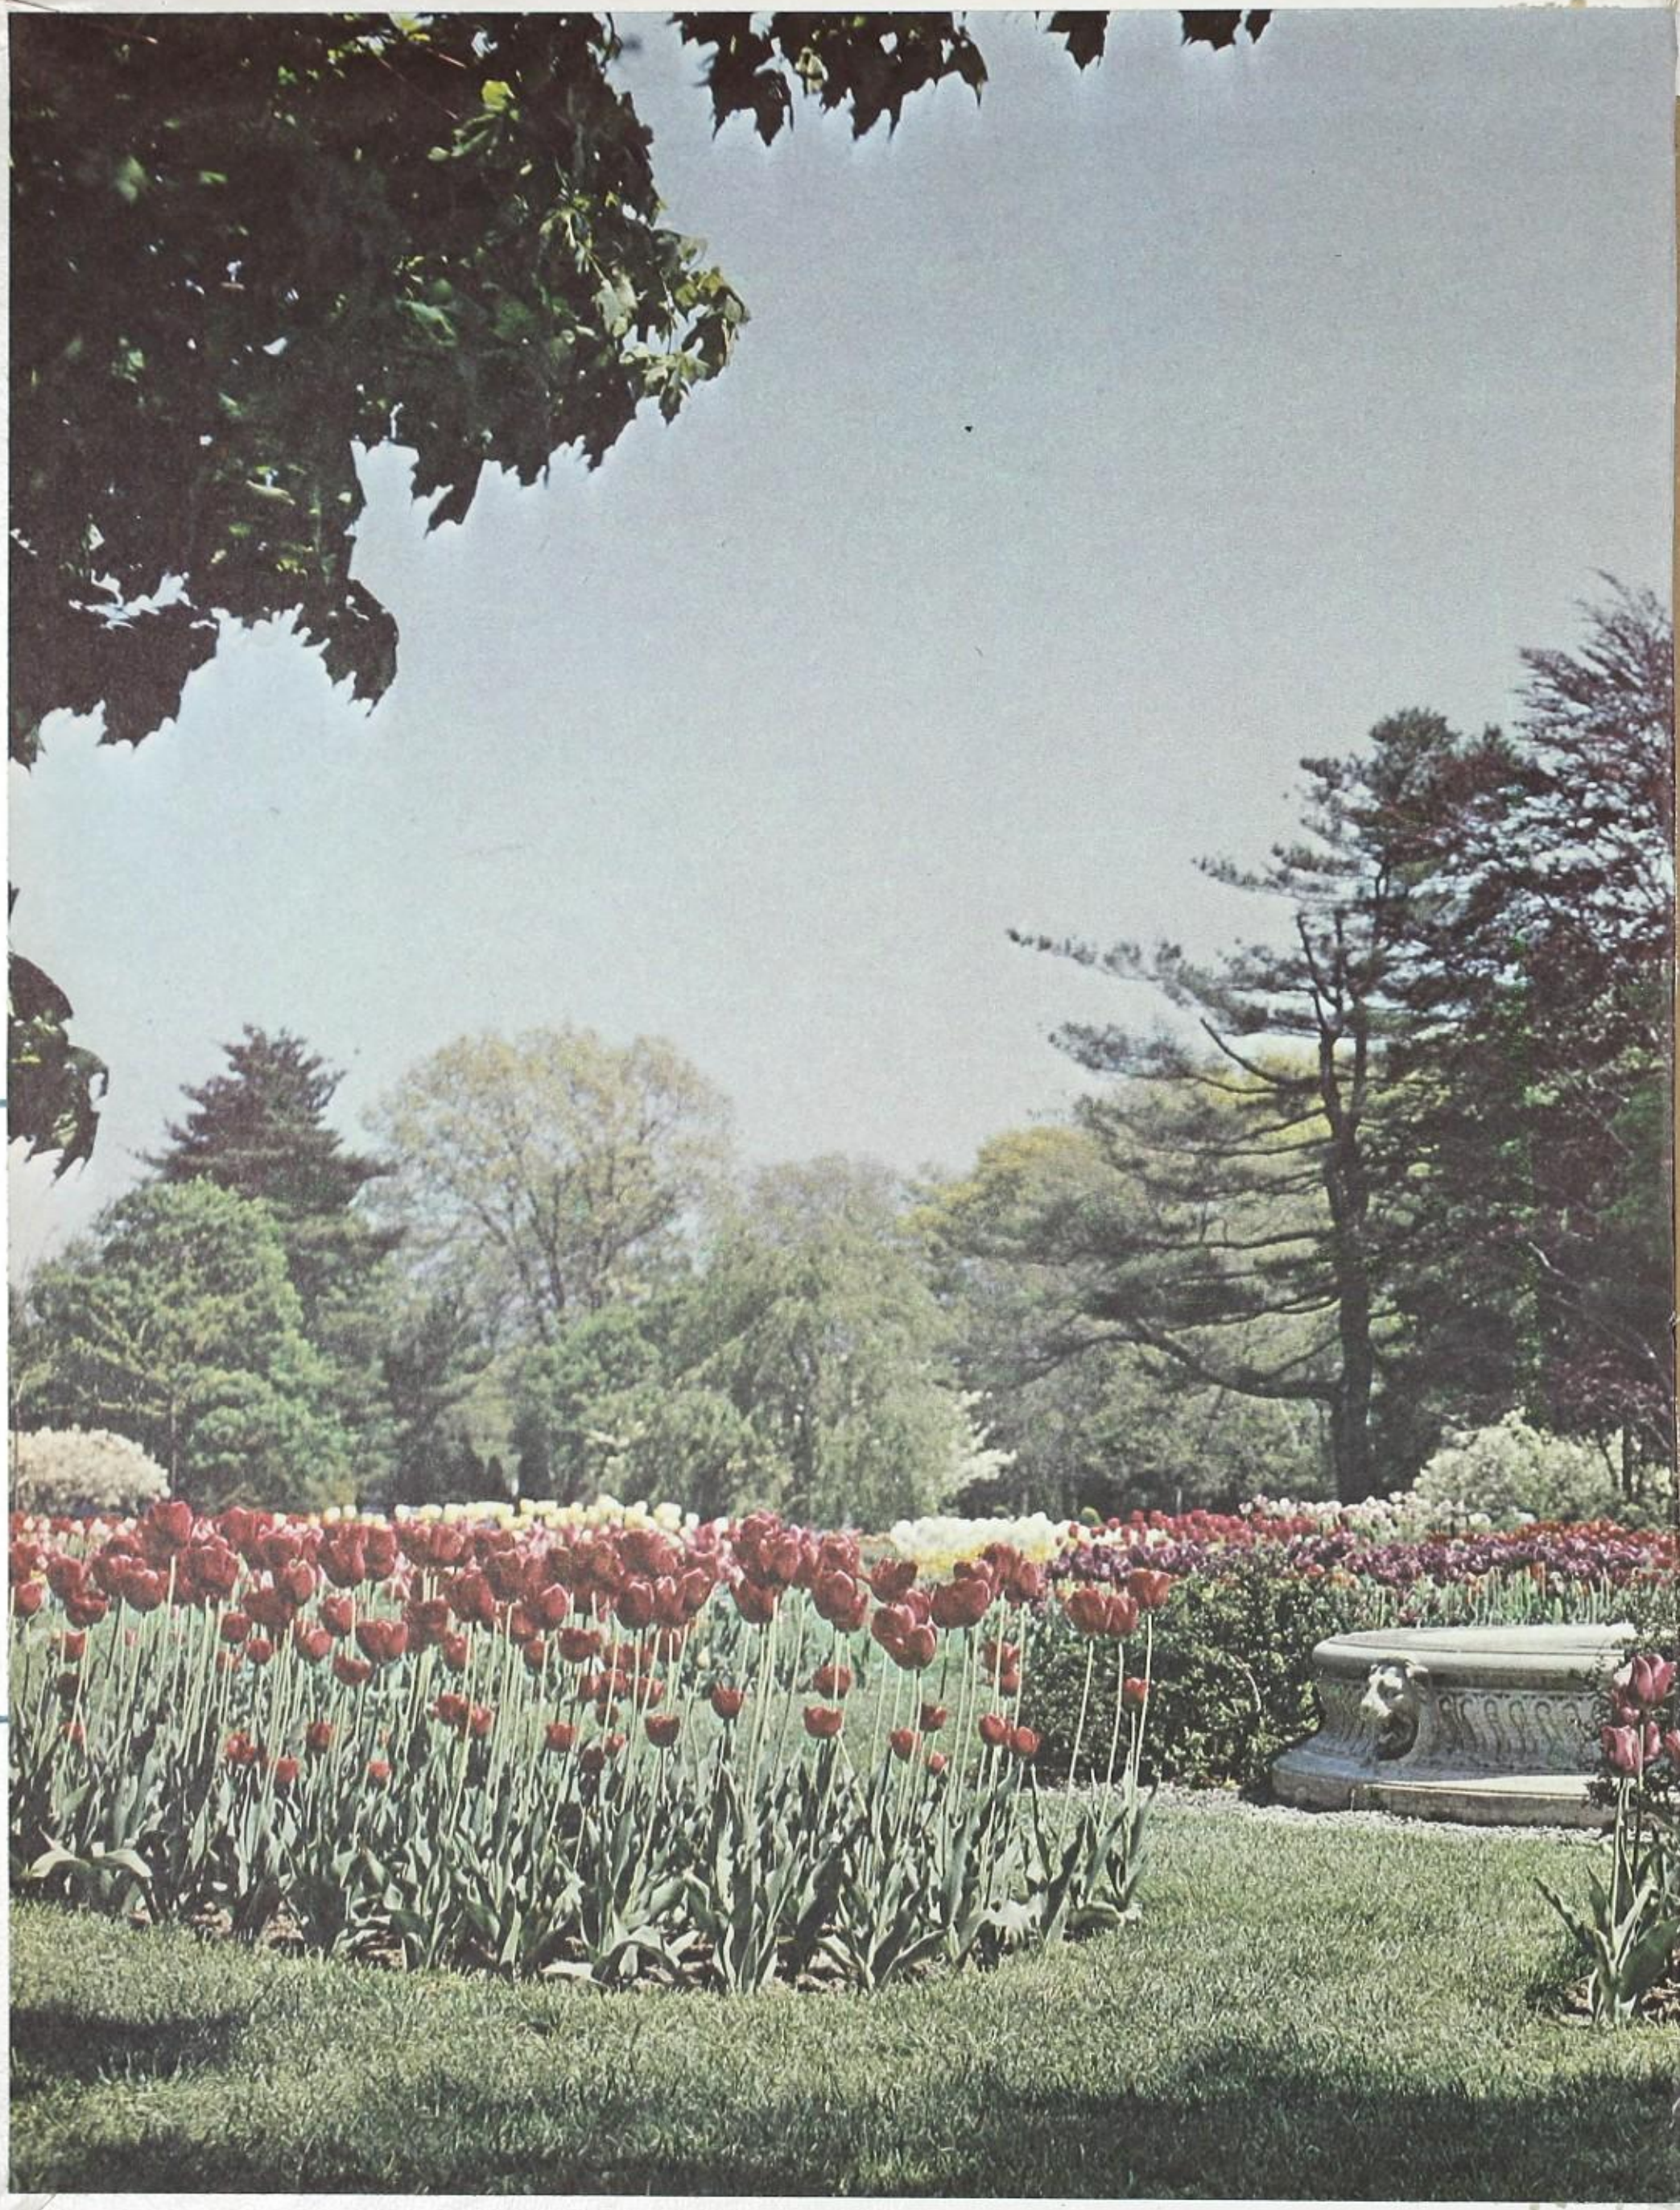
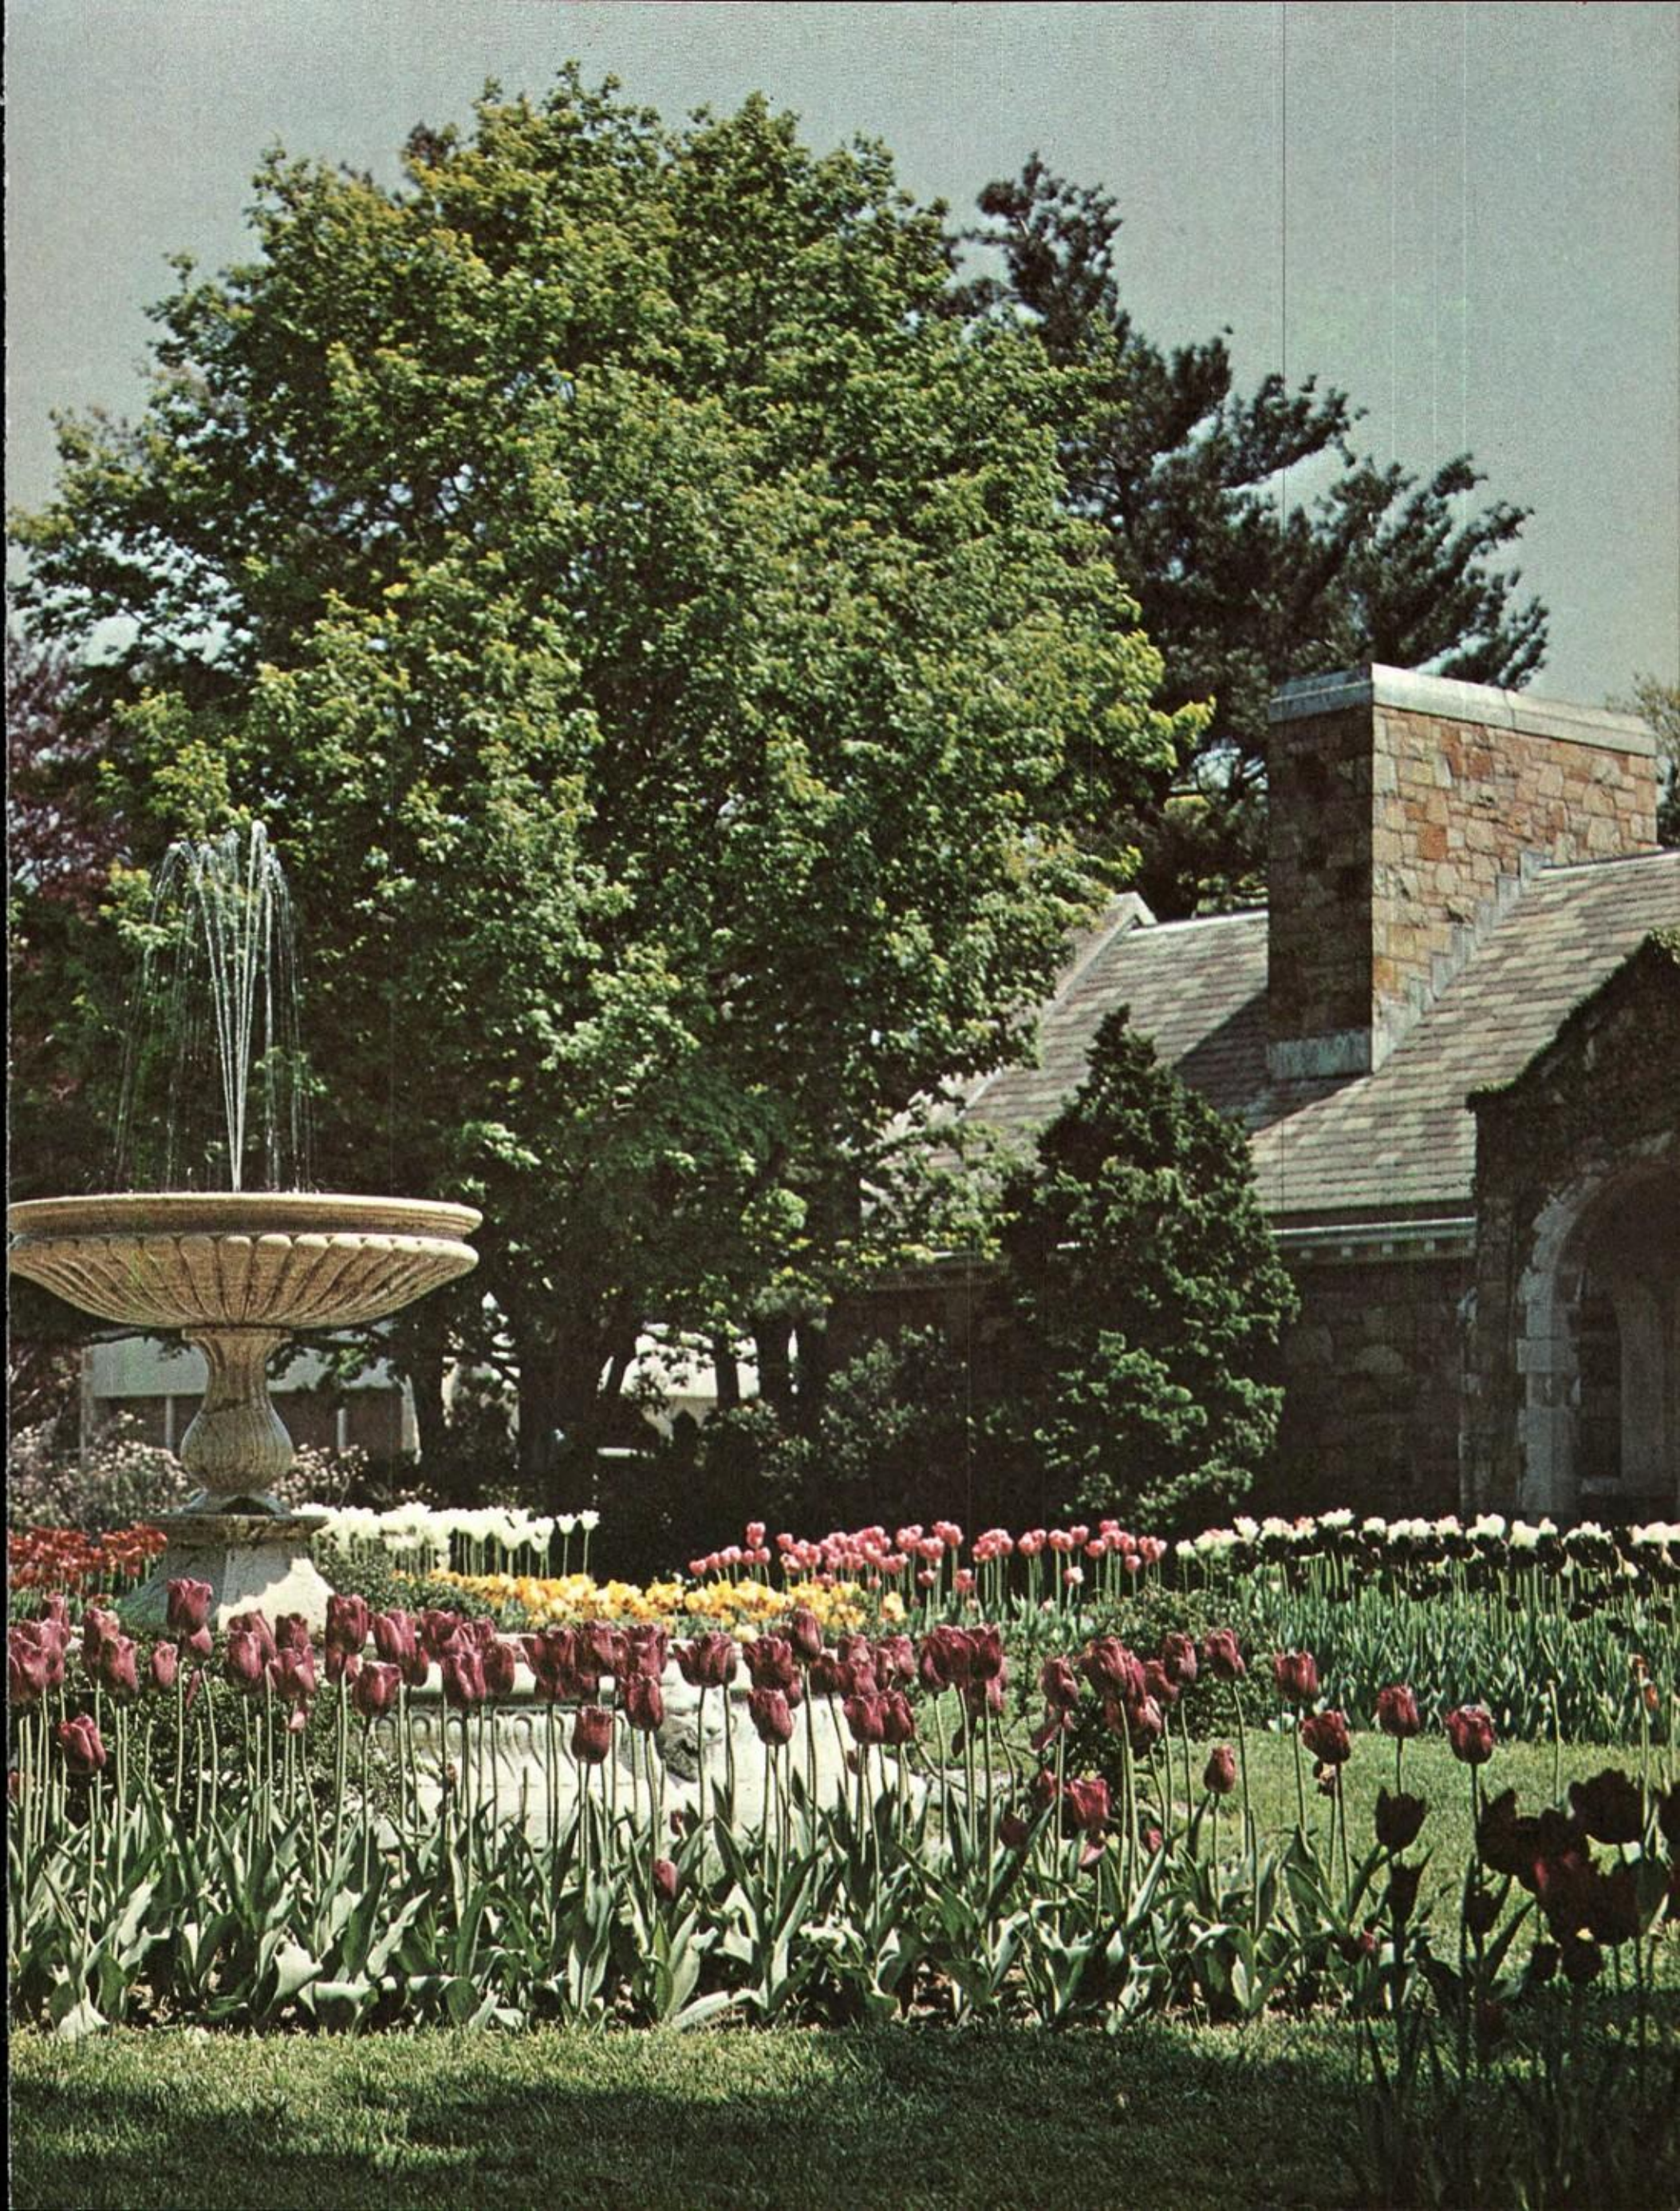
SEEKONK HIGH 1975





all lies within the indefinite boundaries of the future
our hopes —
our dreams —
our thoughts — are caught among the fragile fibers of the spider's web,
the intricate mesh of concept on concept created for patterned men
who are controlled,
for loving men
who never exist alone,
for far-reaching men
that realize their goals . . .

the timelessness of a sunset reveals the infinity of tomorrow.

. . . and trapped upon the web
we grow and in our quiet way create a web of our own . . .

a four year long century
seemed to slip by quickly and leave unsuspecting victims asking, "where did it go"

SEEKONK HIGH SCHOOL

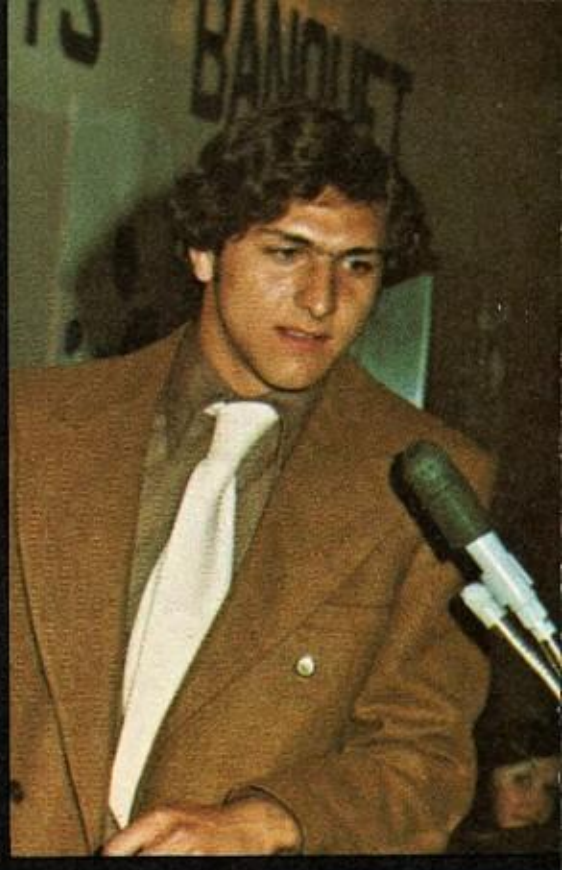
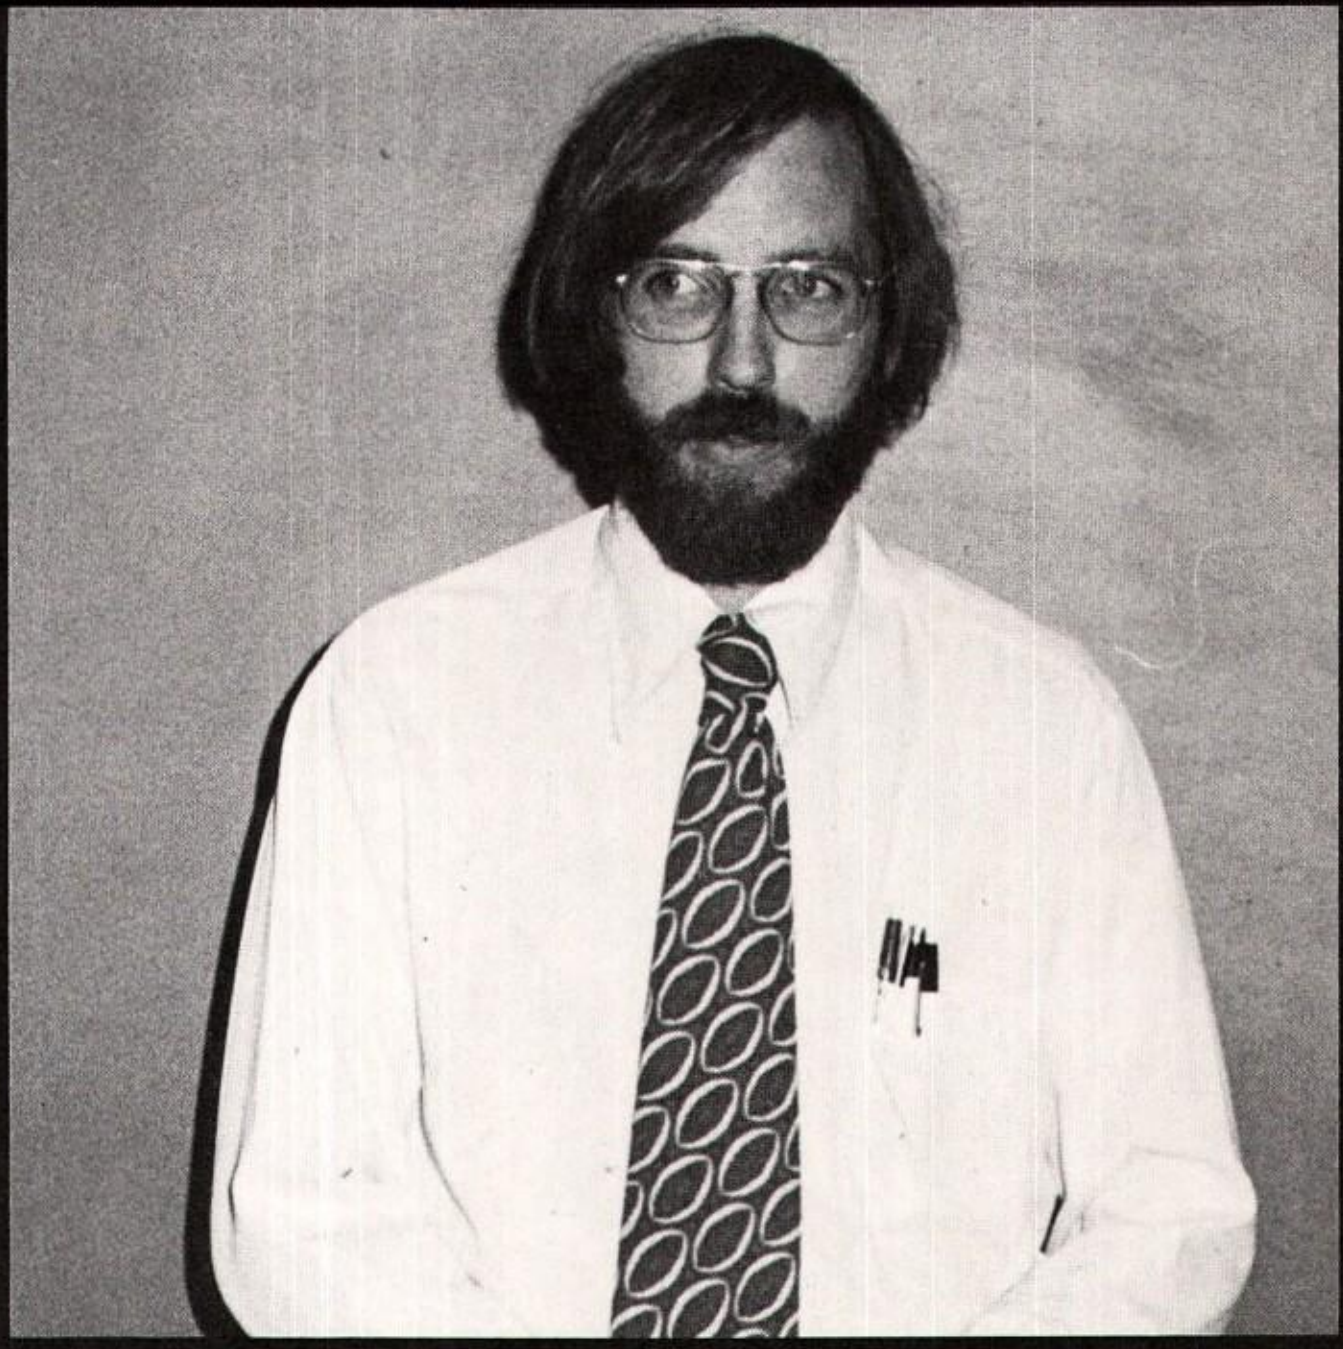
CLASS OF 1975

and the goodbye makes the journey harder still



BANQUET



. . . as confusion assumes some semblance of order insecurity succumbs to confidence anxiety to fulfillment and frustration to satisfaction . . .
we grow throughout and change within the passage of our time.
amid all of this was your steady guidance and unselfishness —
we thank you, Mr. Nelson

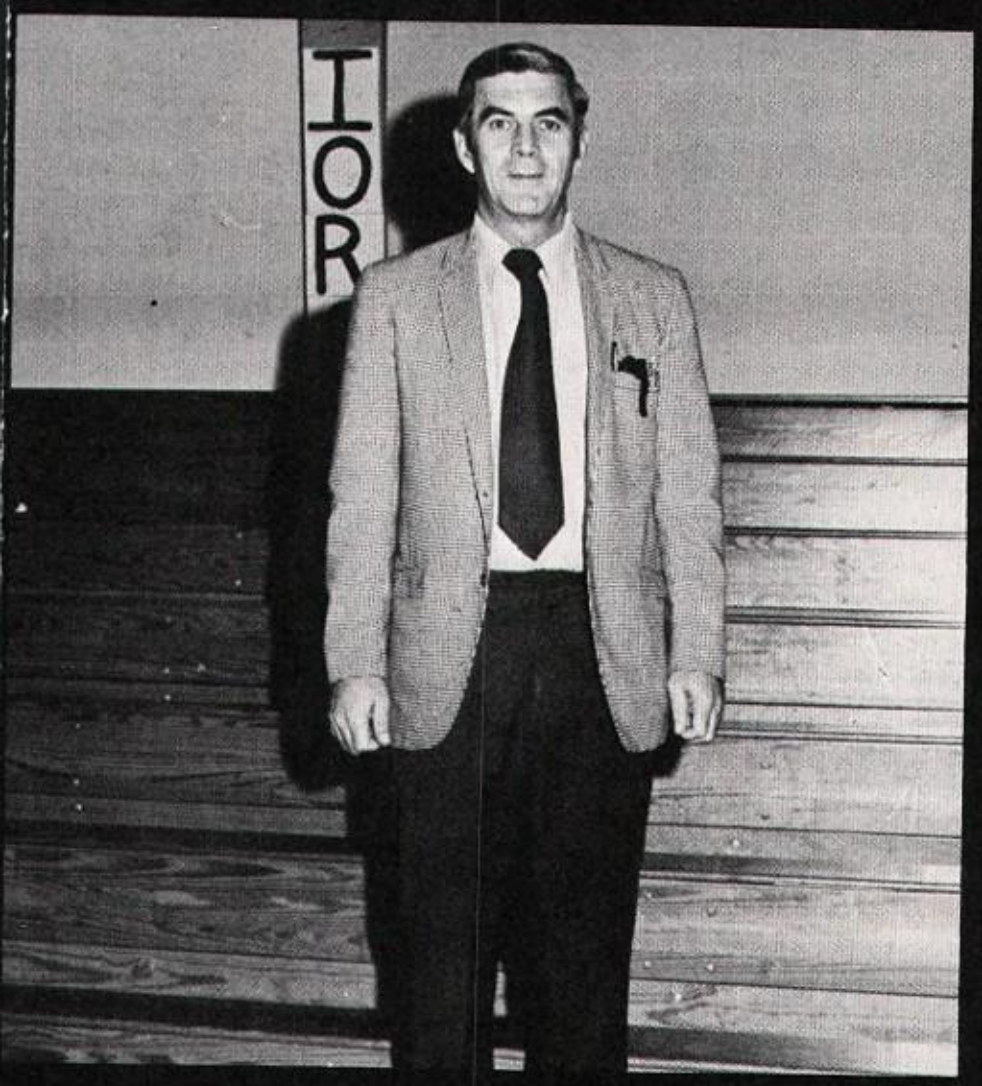
IN APPRECIATION

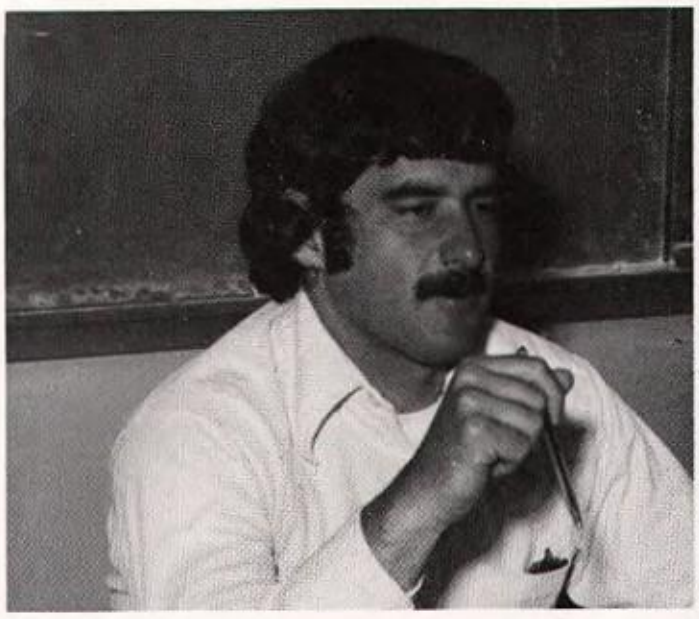


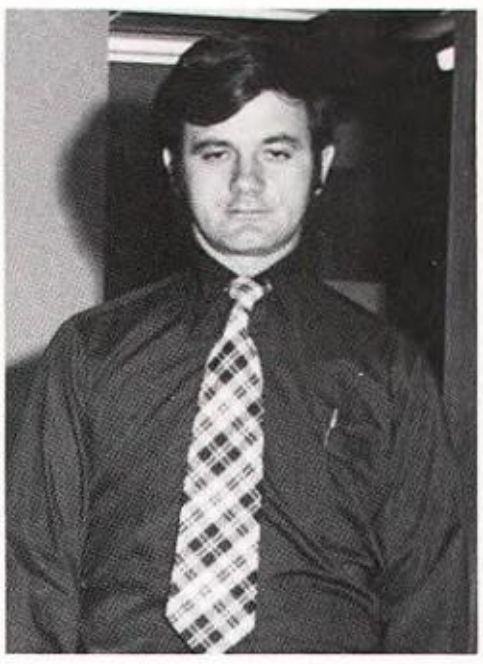
Mr. Richard Dias, Principal

Over the Years, We Have Realized a Growing Sense of Pride in Our School and in Our Community. Just as Our School Symbolized That Pride, the Class of 1975 Feels That You, Mr. Dias, Have Been a Major Guiding Influence in Its Development. At This Time, the Class Would Like to Thank You in a Lasting Way for All of Your Concern.

We Would Like to Show Our Appreciation to You, Mrs. Keough, for All the Time and Effort You Contributed to Our Class. The Maternal Role You Played Inspired Us Throughout These Past Four Years. We, the Class of 1975, Would Like to Thank You.

Mrs. Helen Keough





LOOK TO THIS DAY

Look to This Day!
For It Is Life, the Very Life of Life
For Yesterday Is Already a Dream, and Tomorrow Is Only

A Vision;
But Today, Well Lived,
Makes Every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And Every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.

Of course, we're avid students
Dedicated to the end.
The other 179 days we're all in class
just waiting to soak up that knowledge.
But what can you do when it's finally June?
and the sun is shining up to 84°
and somehow a smiling U.S. History teacher just doesn't thrill you?
Well — of course, the only dedicated thing to do,
is what we did.

WENT TO THE BEACH!!!

Willie Wonka?

I'm so happy!

GRRR . . .

On a scale of 1-21 . . .

Have we got class!

I think I am going to sneeze!

You are sweet as a rose!

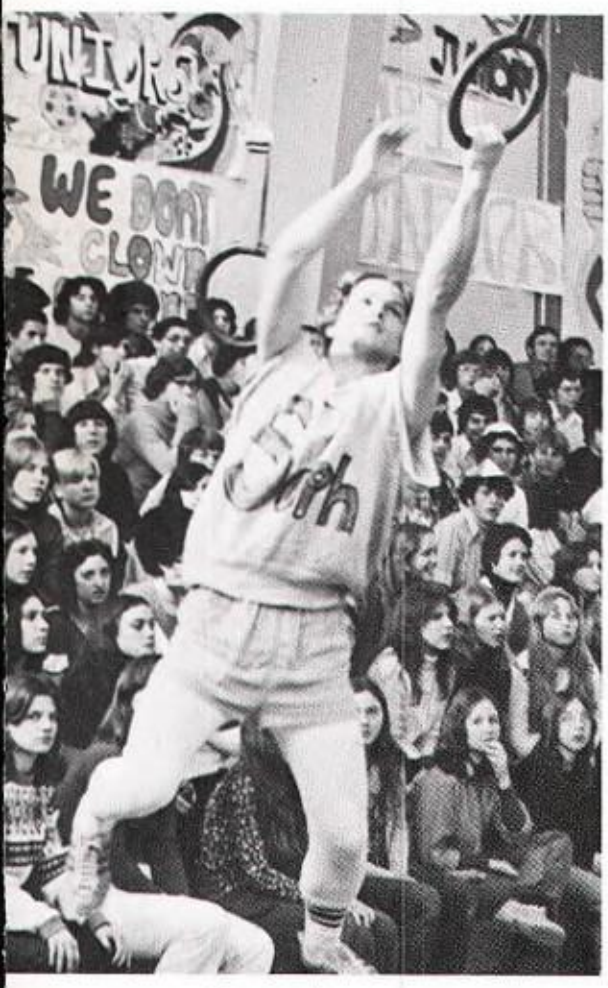
Hi, my name is Robert!

SPIRIT WEEK

Dance with me, please!

I'm afraid of heights!

I didn't think the freshman girls would be this hard to beat!



Up, up and away!

The ice melted.

I'm stuck!

Next year!

The Spirit of '75!

1-2 cha cha cha!

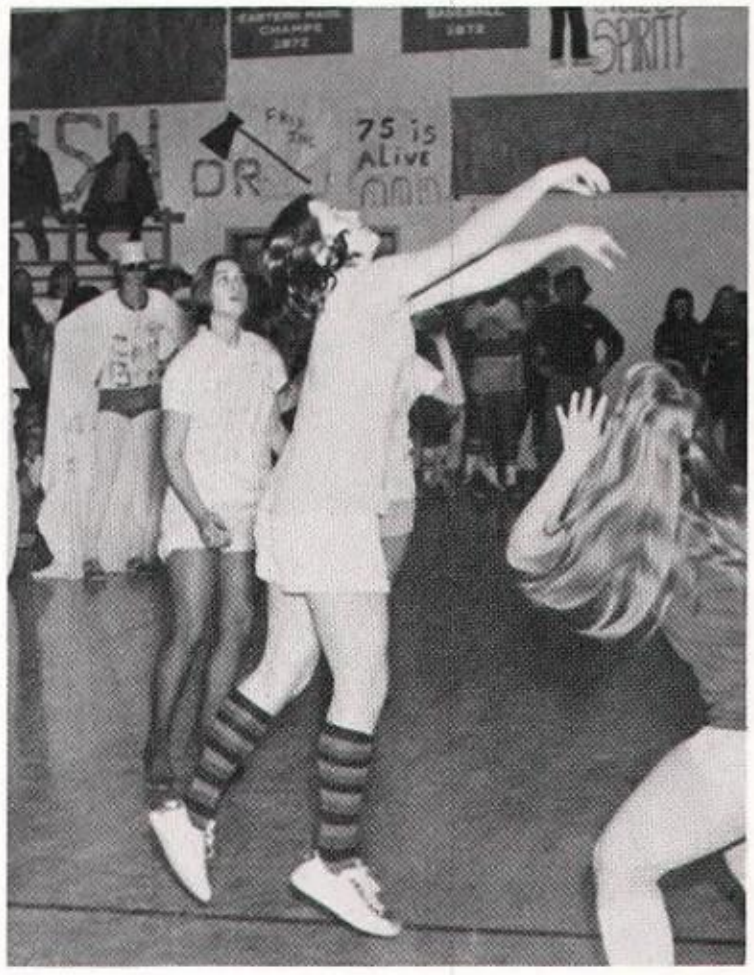
Mr. Dias was a senior!

The sky is the limit!

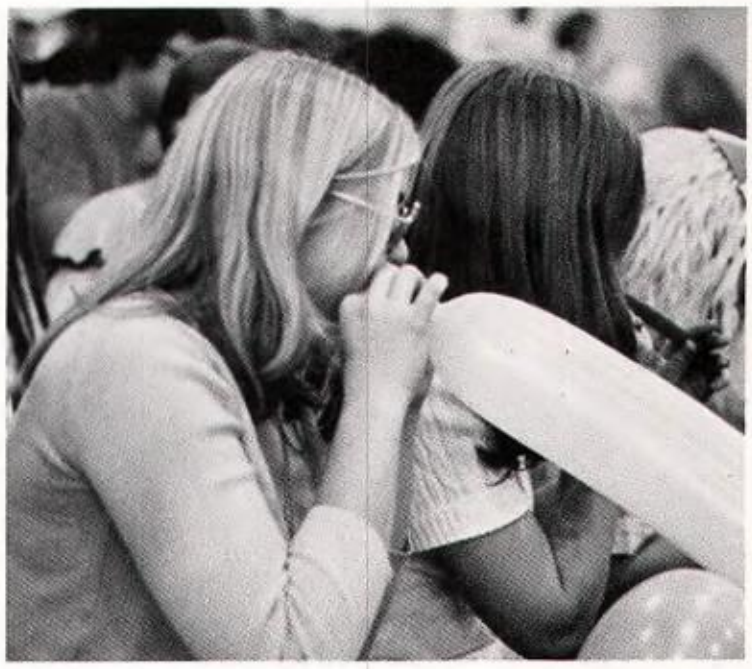
Is that our fairy godmother?

We won't go to class and you can't make us.

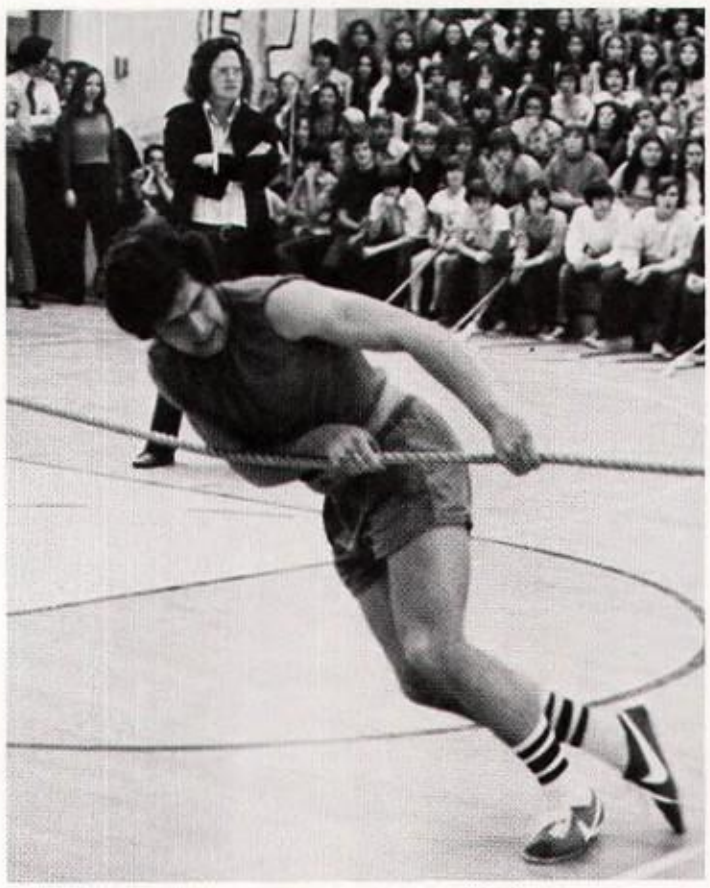
Little Chief looks at Big Chief!



Kathy, you can fly, you can fly!



All their strength is in their hair!



Just don't stand there . . .

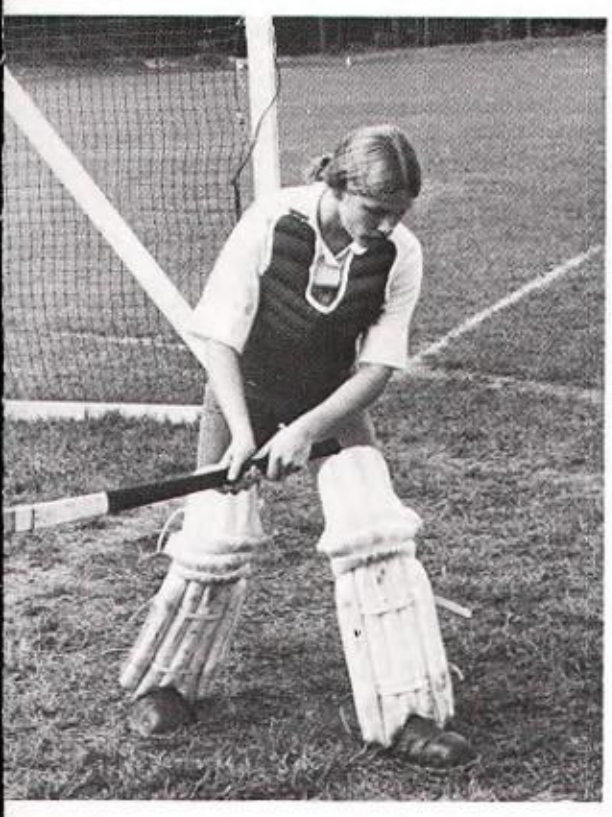
Aw! I'm not that good

I'll get you this time!

Me and my shadow

Let 'em lose, I'm ready

Trouble comes in three's.



If I put it under my foot, maybe nobody will find it.

Charge of the Light Brigade

No Terry, use the stick!

She stoops to conquer

Wait a minute, on second thought . . .

Barb tries the old soft shoe.

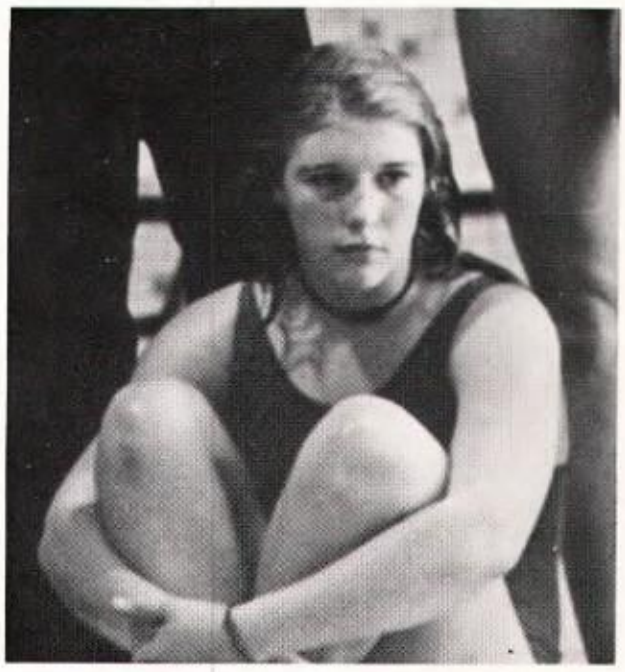
Kathy on the attack!

I know it's here somewhere!

GIRL'S SWIM

My hearing aid fell in the pool!

So that's how you drown.



Wish they'd let me swim!

Give me a boost.

Let's add some points!

Mrs. Pockel, you just cannot do water ballet.

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

Aw, Liz!

Aw, Ma!

Can't we shower now?

Ribbit!

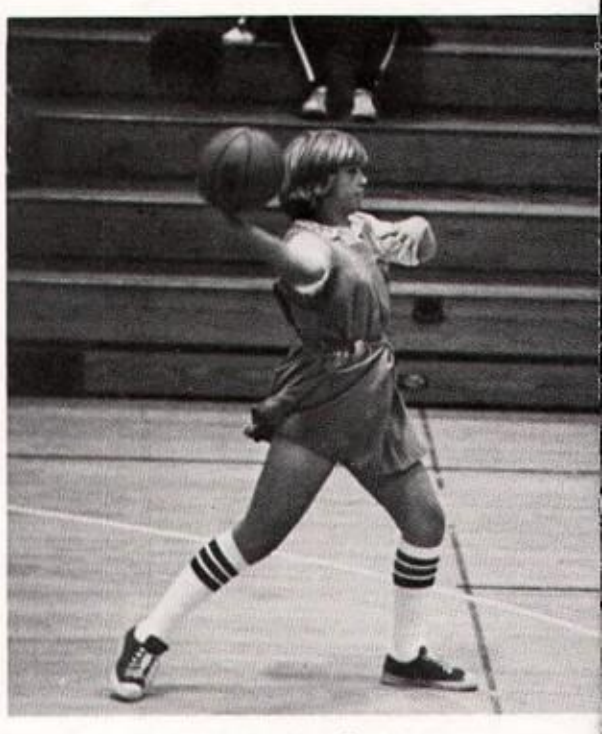
One more time, Lynn.

I command you to go through the hoop.

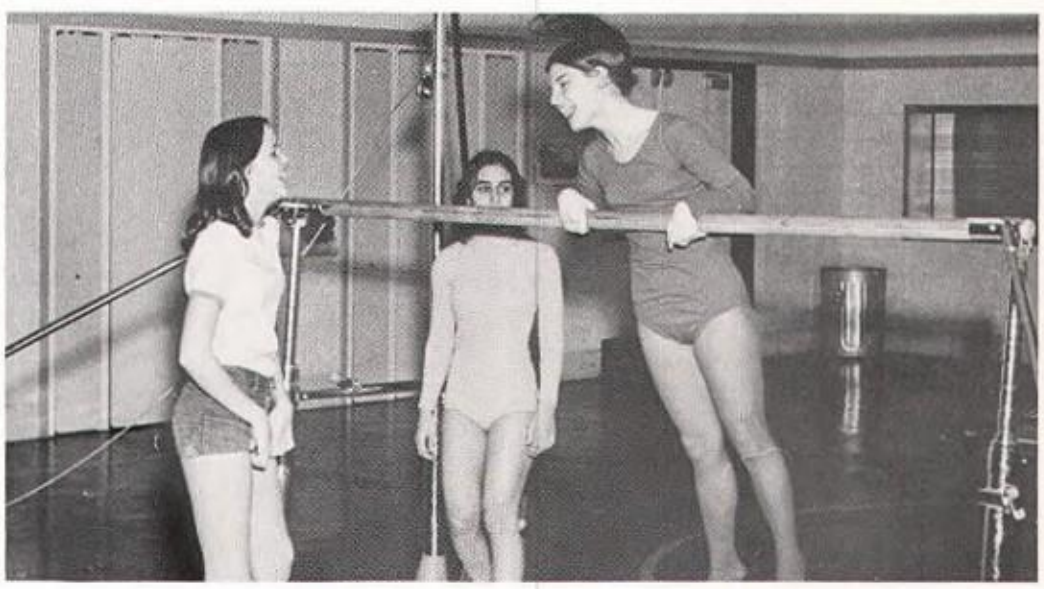
Give me that ball!

Oh, that odor!



I hope it makes it!

A perfect split!



How do you like this dismount?

Now, how do I get out of this position?

It's a bird, it's a plane!

Now . . . let go!

Seekonk's own Olga Korbut.

GYMNASTICS

The one time the whole squad's coordinated!

"Dada, if you make another mistake I'll scream!"

Forward; march!

Same to you, Buddy!

I hope we score!

Football is so cute!

Now fix your hair, Norda.

We can climb the highest mountain!

I didn't think you could do that with the basketball!

look to the sunset for the great men of man,
look to the ocean, too.
and if you squint your eyes enough their silhouettes appear in saddened darkness amid light and wave, as one.
look to the horizon, if there is one to see, for hope,
look to the eagle, too.
and if you cannot see the separation, then create the exactness of the lines and rhythm of the wings, they must be there, too look to the cliff while you stand upon it, for strength, look to the sky, too.

WE HAVE ENJOYED

. . . taking your photographs and having you in the studio. When the need for a new portrait arises . . . personal, family, or wedding, please let us serve you.

We would like to give special thanks and consideration to the following individuals for the time and effort which they generously contributed to the Yearbook.

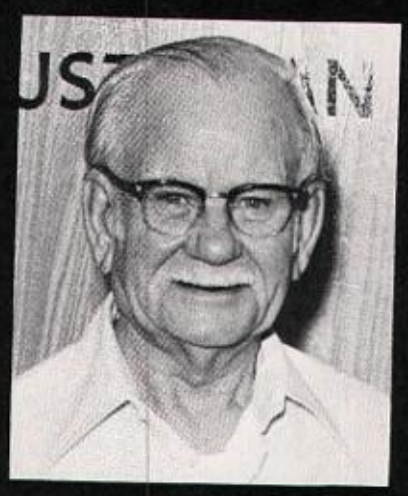
Mrs. Mooney for allowing the use of the typewriters.

Mrs. DiOrio and Mrs. Eastman for enabling the staff to make use of the library facilities.

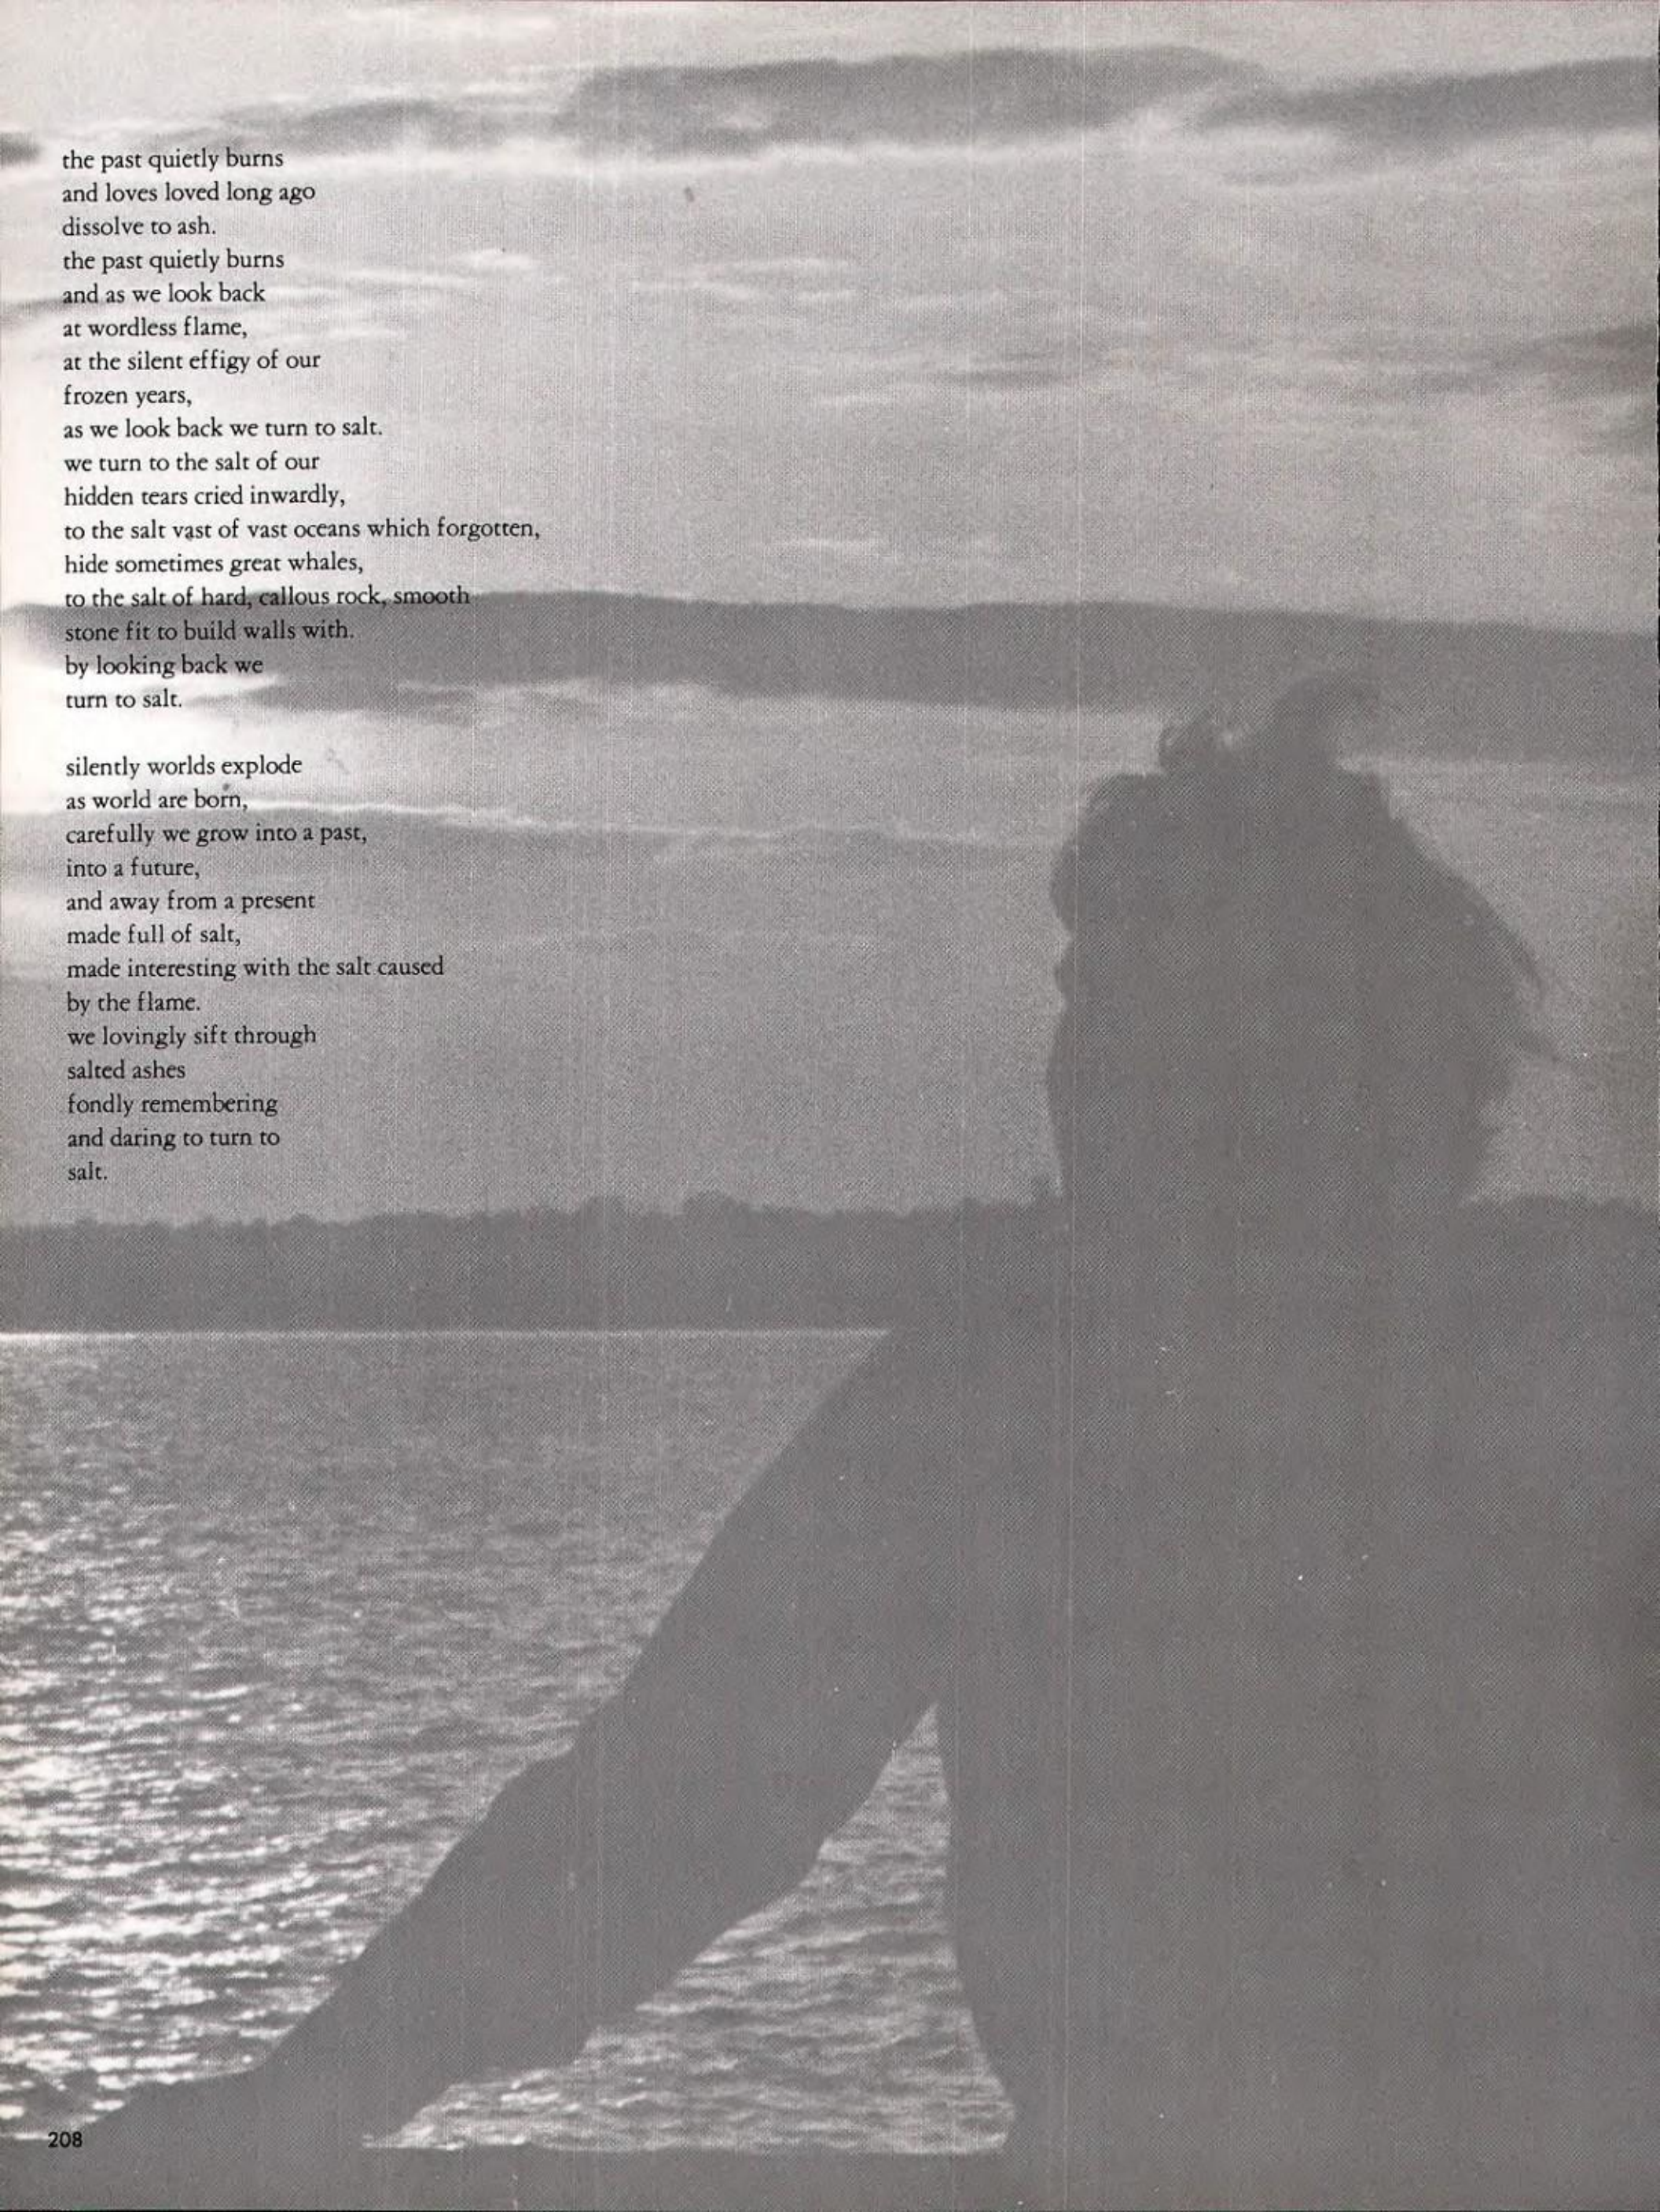
Miss Tessar for contributing her knowledge as a photographer.

The janitors, Al Kay, Pat Cimino, and Al Evans for their unselfish attitudes displayed in their cooperation.

A special thanks to Mr. O'Hara for this patience and talent.



Gratitude is the memory of the heart.



the past quietly burns
and loves loved long ago
dissolve to ash.
the past quietly burns
and as we look back
at wordless flame,
at the silent effigy of our frozen years,
as we look back we turn to salt.
we turn to the salt of our hidden tears cried inwardly,
to the salt vast of vast oceans which forgotten,
hide sometimes great whales,
to the salt of hard, callous rock, smooth stone fit to build walls with.
by looking back we turn to salt.

silently worlds explode
as world are born,
carefully we grow into a past,
into a future,
and away from a present
made full of salt,
made interesting with the salt caused by the flame.
we lovingly sift through salted ashes
fondly remembering and daring to turn to salt.
